

Advocate Shandukani Muthugulu-Ugoda

Shandu holds an LLB and LLM from University of Venda. She is an admitted advocate of the High Court of South Africa and has been a University of Fort Hare lecturer since 2015. She started her teaching career at the University of Venda, where she taught Commercial law, Law of Companies and Close Corporations, Banking Law and Law of Insolvency. In 2012 she received the Vice-Chancellor's Excellence in teaching Award at the University of Venda. At the University of Fort Hare, she teaches Law of Business Entities, Law of Insolvency, Instruments of Payment and Family law. Her research interests include winding-up of solvent companies, corporate governance, director's duties, business rescue, banking law and shareholders remedies. She has published and delivered conference papers in these areas. She is an Associate Editor of Speculum Juris an accredited Journal of the University of Fort Hare and she is HoD Adjectival Law. She is an LLD candidate at the University of Fort Hare. Her doctoral study in the field of company law is entitled "the just and equitable ground for winding-up of solvent companies: South Africa in comparative perspective".

Paper title presented in 2017: "Identifying the missing link in section 81(1)(d)(iii) of the Companies Act 71 of 2008: A case for an innovative approach to dealing with companies overwhelmed by deadlock".