

CCLA-NIALS joint conference

A one-day conference was successfully co-hosted by UCT's Centre for Comparative Law in Africa (CCLA) and the Nigerian Institute of Advanced Legal Studies (NIALS) on Friday 8th December 2017 in Lagos, Nigeria. The research collaboration between these two research centres is supported by the TY Danjuma Fund for Law and Policy Development in Africa, endowed at UCT. The Lagos conference was used to present the work done under the research project: Law and Policy for Achieving Sustainable Energy for All in Africa. The event was attended by the project funder (General TY Danjuma) as well as UCT's Deputy Vice-Chancellor Professor Hugh Corder as well as other members of the research project team including some of UCT's alumnus based in Lagos.

General TY Danjuma GCON, donor of the TY Danjuma Fund for Law and Policy Development in Africa, addressing the audience.

Professor Hugh Corder, then Deputy Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cape Town, speaking at the conference.

A cross-section of contributors to the book. From left to right, Ms Nkiruka Maduekwe of NIALS, Dr Peter Oniemola of the University of Ibadan, the moderator, Mrs Helen Chuma-Okoro of NIALS, Professor Paul Idornigie SAN of NIALS and Dr Kabiru Salami of the University of Ibadan.

Participants at the Conference. From left to right, Director-General of the NIALS, Professor Deji Adekunle SAN, Dr Ada Ordor of the CCLA, Professor Hugh Corder, Deputy Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cape Town and Dr Terhemem Andzenge, General Counsel, Bureau of Public Enterprises.

Professor Yinka Omorogbe – Lead investigator and lead editor of the book.