

Poland and South Africa Project
Two Rhetorical Models for Participatory Citizenship in Post-Totalitarian Cultures

Second Symposium

Cape Town, 27-28-29 September 2004

The first day of proceedings will take place at District Six Museum and be devoted to arguments of urbanity in the apartheid and democratic city; on the second day, held at the Irma Stern Museum, there will be papers on socialist and popular culture; and, on the last day, discussants will convene at the South African Parliament to hear and discuss papers concerning political deliberation.

The Project is thankful to the District Six Museum, the Irma Stern Museum and the Parliamentary Offices of the IFP for their hospitality. The Project Directors are Professor Jerzy Axer, University of Warsaw and Distinguished Professor Philippe-Joseph Salazar, University of Cape Town.

Attendance is free for UCT graduates and staff, although limited to 10. As pre-registration is compulsory, please contact the Symposium assistant director, Nathalie Bucher on nathalierosabucher@yahoo.com

Papers are 40 minutes long, followed by 20 minutes question time.

Monday 27 September

11.30-12.30 Visit of the District Six Museum with a presentation of its heritage policy by Zayd Minty, Deputy Director. This visit is strictly reserved to conferees.

Chair: Professor Yehoshua Gitay, Cape Town

14.00-15.00 Dr Myriam Houssay-Holzschuch, Lyons: Public spaces and urbanity : the case of Cape Town

15.00-16.00 Professor Jerzy Axer, Warsaw: Chronotopoi, Lviv and Wroclaw

Tuesday 28 September

11.30-12.30 Visit of the Irma Stern Museum, with a presentation by Mary Van Blommestein, assistant director. This visit is strictly reserved to conferees.

Chair: Professor Cezar Ornatowski, San Diego

14.00-15.00 Professor Jerzy Koch, Poznan: Afrikaans in Poland: Making the exotic intimate

15.00-16.00 Clive Kronenberg, Cape Town: The Cuban model and culture in post-apartheid South Africa

16.00-17.00 Dr Zefirah Gitay, Sha'ar HaNegev: The Rhetoric of South African Graffiti

Wednesday 29 September

11.30-12.30 Visit of the South African Parliament. This visit is strictly reserved to conferees.

Chair: Distinguished Professor Philippe-Joseph Salazar

14.00-15.00 Connie Mpokotho and John Cayzer, Cape Town: Writing speeches for opposition parties. Challenges and methods

15.00-16.00 Professor Maciej Mrozowski, Warsaw: Populist rhetoric in Poland. The case of Andrzej Lepper

16.00-17.00 Professor Cezar Ornatowski, San Diego: Parliamentary rhetoric in transition: Polish Parliament before and after 1989