

Dear Alumni and Friends

Our alumni and friends responded with generosity to our appeal to support our students during this difficult and unprecedented year.

Your donations to the UCT Law Fund continue to ensure that so many of our students' university stories conclude successfully and happily.

We are well into Semester 2 already and are moving into that part of the year when final exams and assignments feel as if they are looming. Studying Law is challenging enough in the normal course of events, and you will no doubt recall the long hours of reading, the late nights and the seemingly endless sets of submission deadlines.

With the university's move to emergency remote teaching, and the huge impact of lockdown on families already stretched to their financial limits, our students' anxiety levels are raised well above the norm. We are doing all we can to help students cope with the additional demands placed on them by families, home circumstances and the often very difficult conditions that students work in.

Your assistance has never been more greatly appreciated. On behalf of our students and their families - thank you.

They will do better because of you.

Sincere regards,

Danwood
