

EXCELLENCE IN LAW

Dear Alumni and Friends

Every student's story is different.

Help give us the flexibility to make each student's story a success.

The global pandemic and South Africa's State of Disaster have intensified the need for student support in the Faculty of Law.

For many of our students the pressures of setting up and adapting to remote learning, the change in their living and study circumstances, and the isolation of learning at distance, are real and overwhelming. Many students are under pressure to earn income to help their families, as a higher priority than continuing with their studies.

We want to minimise the disruption of Covid-19. Together, with your support, we can continue to support excellence in Law, and help our students continue their studies and realise their dreams of graduating with a UCT Law degree.

Your contribution to the funds below will give us the means to give help and support where it is needed most.

- The Scholarship Fund: covers tuition fees
- The Equipped for Law Fund: assists students to access online learning, and online resources
- The Law Student Crisis Fund: supports students faced with loss of personal and/ or family income; medical emergencies (accidents, illness or death of a family member) and medication; spectacles; groceries; emergency travel; travel back to campus; and other unanticipated expenses.

Our world has changed.

And how we support our students has changed.

We need to help our students differently - and we need your help to do so. Please consider a contribution to our Excellence in Law Fund.

Sincere regards,

Danwood
