

Greetings to all our Alumni, Friends and Colleagues

We have reached the end of 2019 - and the end of my first year as Dean of Law. It has been a very busy period, with many exciting developments in the Faculty, and I am looking forward to leading the Faculty into a productive and energetic 2020.

In signing off for 2019, I would like to share a few notes. Firstly, thank you to those who were able to join us at the celebration of 160 years of UCT Law. It was a wonderful event, made all the more enjoyable because so many of our alumni were part of the evening. Secondly, thanks to those of you who have responded to our Naming Survey, as part of our efforts to gather ideas on great legal contributors who could potentially be recognised through the naming of spaces in UCT's Kramer Law Building. If you have not yet taken the survey, please review at the link below and submit your suggestions by 17 December. We would greatly appreciate your input.

Third, we are very pleased to have a whole album of Final Year LLB Class Photos now available online, with most class photographs from 1970 – 2018, and many photographs of the Law Students Councils over the years, and other groups. While we will continue to add to this library, many are already accessible at the link below.

We are looking forward to 2020, and to many opportunities to engage with you. On behalf of the Faculty, I wish you a safe and restful holiday period.
