

CHINESE LAW AND INVESTMENT IN AFRICA

40 hours face-to-face lectures

Held over 2 weeks at UCT

THE COURSE AT A GLANCE

Are you interested in Chinese law and investment in Africa, but don't want to study full-time? UCT Law@work is pleased to offer a unique opportunity for you to join a two-week master's class in Chinese law and earn a UCT certificate of completion.

Students will be required to attend classes at UCT and submit a research assignment. Participation in a group presentation will be optional. Please see our website for dates and further details.

- DATES:                Week 1: 28 August to 1 September 2023
                              Week 2: 11 September to 15 September 2023
                              Research assignment to be submitted in October 2023
- TIME:                 10:00 to 14:00 - SAST
- NO. OF HOURS:    40 hours held over 2 weeks
- FEE:                    R15,500 per delegate. The fee includes any course materials. Full payment must be received three days before the course starts.
- PRESENTERS:      Tebogo Lefifi - Doctoral researcher, Director of China Africa Law Desk (CALD)
                              Christopher Edyegu - Africa editor at the China Global South Project
- COURSE FORMAT: Contact course held at UCT
- CERTIFICATE:      A certificate of completion from UCT will be issued to those who pass the assignment.
Please note that this course is not credit-bearing and cannot be taken as an elective towards a degree programme.
- DEADLINE:         Registrations close three days before the course starts

TO REGISTER OR FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Email: don.coue@uct.ac.za

Or visit: www.lawatwork.uct.ac.za