

AN OVERVIEW OF CHINESE LAW AND INVESTMENT IN AFRICA

8 hours remote learning

Held over 4 days

THE COURSE AT A GLANCE

China is currently Africa's leading trade and investment partner. Knowledge of Chinese policies and law is a valuable resource for policy makers, legal professionals and business people. This course is an essential resource to understand and navigate China's interests in Africa, and offers a short overview of Chinese business law and international investment policies.

The course will cover prospects and legal aspects of doing business with China, China's Africa policy and interests under the Forum on China Africa Cooperation (FOCAC) framework. Participants will be able to generate insights for doing business in China and have a nuanced understanding of China's actions in Africa.
