

DOING BUSINESS IN AFRICA: LEGAL FRAMEWORKS

6 hours remote learning

Held over 3 days

THE COURSE AT A GLANCE

This course provides a platform for learning the plural legal frameworks for the conduct of business in different parts of the African continent - that is, within and between regions and countries.

These legal frameworks are shaped by various legal traditions such as international and regional law, common law, civil law, and religious and customary law principles. The course has been designed to assist interested parties in navigating their investment interests in Africa and equipping them with the legal framework for interacting with stakeholders.
