

ESTATE PLANNING AND WILLS

8 hours remote lecturing

Held over 4 days

COURSE INFORMATION

An estate and financial plan has to incorporate not only the needs and preferences of the estate owner, but also the existing law, tax legislation and economic factors. All these factors have a bearing on each subsequent step in the process.

This course will provide the foundation for good estate planning and its culmination in a will, reflecting the true intention of the testator or testatrix. The course will illuminate the law and how these legal principles apply in practice, by means of a case study.
