A practical, career-enhancing course presented by three specialists in the field! Provides people involved in drafting of legislation with essential theoretical and practical knowledge and skills.

This course builds on our legislative drafting introductory course. It focuses more intensively on specific issues and problem-solving exercises. You will gain enhanced knowledge and skills to draft legislation efficiently, accurately and in compliance with legal requirements. Suitable for experienced and inexperienced drafters.

DATES:

July to October 2026, with two compulsory remote workshops on the following days:

Workshop 1: 6 to 9 July, and 13 to 15 July 2026 (24,5 hours over 7 days)

Workshop 2: 12 to 14 October 2026 (10,5 hours over 3 days)

Assignments must be submitted in the intervening period. Final written exam will be taken in November 2026.

PRESENTED BY:

Prof Rassie Malherbe - Emeritus Professor of constitutional law (University of Johannesburg)

Adv Anton Meyer SC - Former chief law adviser to Parliament

Mr Heinrich Muller - Law Reform Unit: Department of Forestry, Fisheries & the Environment

'Introduction to Legislative Drafting' book by our presenters will be used as the prescribed course material.
