This is an introductory course to competition law compliance. It is aimed at anyone with an interest in regulatory compliance. It aims to provide an understanding of the requirements for competition law compliance and to provide practical guidance on the essential provisions a competition law compliance policy should contain.

Covers: why competition compliance is necessary; what it involves; why it should be incorporated into a policy; essential provisions; monitoring and enforcement; consequences of breach.

The course will benefit attorneys; advocates; legal graduates; legal advisors; corporate counsel; regulatory; risk and compliance professionals.

PRESENTED BY: Advocate Candice Slump - competition law litigation specialist
