Globally, corporates are facing costly legal challenges, reputational damage, and loss of investor confidence arising from the impact of their business practices on the environment. For many businesses, a bolt-on or formulaic approach to ESG is failing to create the promised value and performance.

This highly interactive course is designed to challenge and reframe your environmental governance strategies for greater impact and advantage. Participants will gain an overview of the key aspects of both South African and international environmental law, foundational principles, enforcement, and compliance mechanisms.

The course will provide insights into current and emerging trends and how to leverage these for business transformation. Presented in two parts - from August to September 2025.

Aimed at mid-level and senior business managers.

PRESENTED BY: Jennifer Kamerman - an environmental lawyer who holds a B.A. LLB. LLM (Environmental Law) from UCT. Environmental law advisor and public interest mediator.
