UCT Law @ work
Professional Development Project

HUMAN RIGHTS & INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW

PRESENTED ONLINE VIA ZOOM

| DATE | TIME | COURSE DURATION | COURSE FEE |
|---|---|---|---|
| 24 to 28 February 2025 | 13:00 to 17:00 SAST | 20 hours over 5 days | R9,600 per delegateIncludes any course materials. Full payment must be received 3 days before course starts. |

This course offers a detailed analysis of the history, conceptual, theoretical and development of human rights, and an examination of the various mechanisms of human rights protection and humanitarian issues in the world.

Further, it provides an overview of a variety of contemporary human rights systems, including the examination of major developments and recent tendencies in the field of international human rights protection and humanitarian law at domestic, regional and international levels.

The course will benefit human rights activists, paralegals, trade union leaders, NGOs.

PRESENTED BY:

Clement Kasonde - Executive Director and Founder of Midlands Labour Academy Zambia Limited; Law Lecturer and Programme Leader Unicaf University Zambia in partnership with Liverpool John Moore University (UK), University of East London (UK) University of Suffolk (UK).

Abraham Miti - Deputy Head of Mission, Zambian Embassy, Rome Italy; LLM in International and European Business Law.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| PRESENTED ONLINE VIA ZOOM | REGISTRATIONS CLOSE 3 DAYS BEFORE THE COURSE STARTS | UCT CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE [ON ATTENDING THE ENTIRE COURSE] | FOR MORE INFORMATIONdon.coue@uct.ac.zahttps://law.uct.ac.za/law-at-work |