Artificial intelligence is reshaping how creative works, inventions, and data-driven outputs are produced and challenging traditional IP frameworks.

This course provides a practical understanding of IP protection for AI-generated works, the evolving patentability landscape for AI-assisted inventions, and liability risks arising from AI-driven infringement.

The course outline includes: AI's Disruption of the IP Landscape; Copyright & AI-Generated Works; Patentability of AI Inventions; Liability for AI-Generated IP Infringement; Commercialisation, Ethics & Future Directions.

Ideal for legal, tech, and creative professionals, it offers actionable insights to navigate emerging regulatory, commercial, and ethical complexities in the AI-IP ecosystem.

PRESENTED BY:

Jesse-Lee Wrensch - Founder and Director, HWK Consulting & Lecturer in Intellectual Property Law
