This course will equip law professionals with essential non-written communication skills - critical to build trust, handle diverse scenarios, and communicate effectively in high-stake environments.

Learn to master active listening, how to navigate difficult conversations, and how to collaborate effectively in a team. Through interactive modules and practical exercises - you will learn to communicate with professionalism, empathy, and cultural awareness in diverse legal settings.

The course is aimed at law professionals, including practising lawyers, legal consultants, and law students.

PRESENTED BY:

Linda Mabusela - Communication Specialist, Author and Co-Founder of Motshodi Consulting. She holds a BA (communication and psychology) from UNISA and a change management qualification from The Leadership Centre. With over 20 years of experience as a social entrepreneur, Linda has worked for various non-government organisations, doing training and consulting.
